

Study tour on
Tashkent - Samarkand - Bukhara

Tempting Tashkent

Tashkent is a unique mixture cultural and architectural of the East and West so can climb to the highest TV tower in the Central Asia and 10 minutes later step in the medieval mosque there carefully preserved ancient Quran. After tranquil walk in the Japanese garden you can start to passionately bargain for the sweetest melons in the world in the Chor Su Bazaar. That is Tashkent and its sprit so see the city and feel the spirit.

Magnificent Samarkand

Samarkand a capital of Tamerlane the Great Empire there you can see a ruins of the Ulugbek Observatory which was the biggest in the medieval world, discover the mystery of the Gur Emir tomb, make a wish near St.Daniel mausoleum and bargain for oriental souvenirs on the Registan square.

Holy Bukhara

Bukhara is a perfectly preserved old oriental city with dozens of mosques and madrasah, pools and channels. Mosques and holy places of the city for centuries attract pilgrims from all over the world. Only in Bukhara you can slake a thirst from Prophet Jacob well and observe Samanids mausoleum a masterpiece of ancient architecture, step into the yard of the medieval castle - the Ark and climb on the highest minaret of the CA - Kalyan.

